

National Ride2School Day

2. How to get started

Some of the most important points to determine in your initial planning stages include:

- Decide on the scope of your day - i.e. how big or small your Ride2School Day will be depends on your school's capabilities – e.g. what number of bikes and range of activities can your school accommodate?
- Form an organising committee – this is a great opportunity to involve students and set up a student leadership group.
- Begin promoting the day to students and parents to start generating ideas and interest.
- Look at the Tips and Suggestions page and decide which aspects you will include.

Don't forget to do your Hands Up! Survey on National Ride2School Day.
